EVENTS FOR THE HEART INSTITUTE POLICY & AGREEMENT

The University of Ottawa Heart Institute Foundation lends support to advance the patient care, teaching and research initiatives of the Heart Institute. The Heart Institute Foundation invites and welcomes special events organized by the community on its behalf.

Policies

The organization/individual(s) organizing the event agree to:

1. Submit the event proposal form which includes a detailed description of the event plans, budget and resources required.
2. Maintain a positive and professional image at all stages of the event process and give the Heart Institute Foundation positive exposure and increased awareness.
3. Proceed in a proper manner as proposed and agreed upon in the initial approved concept and event plan.
4. Ensure benefits are directed to The Heart Institute Foundation.
5. Provide the approved event's overall agenda to the Heart Institute Foundation, which will include the evening/day event itinerary. The approved overall agenda submission must include a copy of the final and confirmed overall event budget breakdown, as well as:
 - a) Expected event expenses
 - b) Financial projections
 - c) Charity amount expected to be raised and donated
6. Use its own mailing list for the event
7. ALL funds must be remitted to the Heart Institute Foundation within 10 days of your event.

EVENT PROPOSAL FORM

The Heart Institute Foundation reserves the right to:

1. Refuse participation in any third-party fundraiser/event that it may find
 - a) Inappropriate in its cardiovascular mission and direction
 - b) Conflicts with other planned future events or current events under way
 - c) Unable to provide required resources or personnel
2. Present the proposed community event plan to the Heart Institute's Foundation board for final approval.
3. Withdraw agreement by giving a 24 hour notice with no financial and/or collateral obligations that may result from such cancellation
4. Determine the use of its logo on all event promotional material, including such things as flyers, posters, promotion on websites, T-Shirts and so on.
5. Audit the records of any event if necessary to ensure compliance with Revenue Canada Regulations.

The Heart Institute Foundation agrees to:

1. Provide community event organizers with appropriate promotion on its website and within the social media program (if available).
2. Where applicable, the Heart Institute will make every effort to provide a spokesperson to attend the third-party event. Please note there may be some circumstances due to scheduling conflicts, where a representative will not be available to attend.

GUIDELINES

Accountability

- The Heart Institute foundation will not assume any legal and/or financial liability associated with your event
- The Heart Institute foundation will not be named in, or sign contracts on behalf of the event organizer(s) nor will a contract be signed or obligations be made on behalf of the Foundation without the Foundation's approval and written consent. All contracts should be viewed by the Foundation before being signed.
- Event's organizer(s) will submit net proceeds from the event together with all related financial reports including complete list of event expenses and revenues within 60 days of the event. The Heart Institute Foundation retains the right to verify the financial reports
- Event organizer(s) will provide the Heart Institute Foundation with a week's notice if the event is cancelled
- Any sporting events require all participants to sign a waiver form waving any physical, personal, and or financial liability
- Event Organizers must preserve and ensure patients rights to privacy. Any information/inquiries regarding any Heart Institute patient or staff member must be directed to the Heart Institute Foundation. The Foundation will work with the Heart Institute's department of communications to coordinate patient, staff or facility photographs, and patient or staff interviews and so on.

Use of Logo & Name

- Please ask permission for any use of the logo and the Heart Institute's name
